

User Stories (version 1)

- As an advisor, I can organize my appointments easily so I can streamline the advising process.
- As a university, I can simplify the advising process to ensure students receive quality advising.
- As a student, I can schedule an advising appointment to meet with my advisor at a time that works for my schedule.
- As a student, I can directly communicate with my advisor to discuss matters in a more efficient manner.
- As a student, I can determine which classes I need to take to simplify my understanding of my graduation requirements.